ABOUT ME

I'm a product designer and communication professional with a strong background in UX research and project management. My strengths lie in uncovering user insights, aligning business goals with user needs, and leading multidisciplinary teams to deliver user-centered digital products. I bring a strategic mindset, creative problem-solving, and deep empathy for users to every challenge. With experience across healthcare, tech, and consumer sectors, I thrive in collaborative environments and have a proven track record of designing experiences informed by data and qualitative research.

EXPERIENCE

Hp

Lead Product Designer & Researcher

Apr 2022 - Present

Led cross-functional research initiatives to uncover user needs and usability issues, helping to shape new digital service offerings. Collaborated with the research department to plan and execute user studies, usability tests, and surveys, integrating findings into product and design decisions. Organized and facilitated stakeholder workshops and sprint retrospectives as the design team's Scrum Master. Drove design improvements based on user feedback and analytics while leading internal communications and engagement activities.

Freelance

UX Designer & Researcher

Jan 2018 - 2023

I designed digital experiences and optimized workplace tool interfaces for various clients, focusing on engagement and adoption strategies. I conducted user research, focus groups, and A/B testing to refine digital solutions. Additionally, I developed interactive prototypes using Figma and Adobe Suite and provided UX writing to enhance usability. I also collaborated with engineers and content teams to translate technical enhancements into user-friendly content that improved digital tool adoption.

Bunin Murray Productions

Production & Digital Technology Coordinator

Feb 2012 - Dec 2017

Coordinated logistics and led production operations for multimedia projects, ensuring alignment with creative goals and client expectations. Worked cross-functionally with directors and producers to gather feedback and iterate on audio/visual assets. Oversaw team collaboration and optimized workflows for increased efficiency.

Eiyei Digital

Social Media & Digital Content Manager

Sept 2014 - Jan 2016

Led content strategy and audience engagement initiatives, drawing insights from analytics to optimize digital campaigns. Developed content informed by target audience behavior and feedback loops. Improved visibility through strategic content planning and SEO best practices.

Publicis Venezuela

Copywriter & Digital Strategist

Dec 2008 - Mar 2010

As a Copywriter and Creative for campaigns involving prominent brands such as Nescafe, Gerber, Sanofi-Aventis, and Bridgestone, I played a pivotal role in developing compelling and impactful messaging strategies. I developed digital strategies for clients, translating business objectives into impactful messaging and content that resonated with target audiences. I collaborated with cross-functional teams to align marketing efforts with digital transformation initiatives.
